Naitre * ^{vn.} be born;
arise (from)

... "where the sun is violently shining" ... "this
me a baby" ... "and God said shall these bones
.. "there's a lamb in the daisies" ... "the water
"this is the sun's birthday" ...

"and the light shines in the darkness"..." as a blind man, lifting a curtain, knows it is morning"...
"I always had these wings buried deep in my back"..." Christ Child, your lips are lean and Evergreen"..." I was born free to my own confusions"..." if millions are born millions must die"
..." and suddenly, from her long sleep, the beautiful princess awakes and dances."

Naitre
Edge-cliff
Nineteen hundred and seventy

Come on people now,

Smile on your brother.

*Everybody get together
try to love one another right now.*

Some may come and some may go;

we will surely pass

When the one that left us here returns for us at last.

We are but a moment's sunlight

fading in the grass.

Darkness, darkness,
be my pillow take my hand and let me see

in the coolness of your shadow,
in the silence of your deep.

Darkness, darkness, hide my yearning for the things that cannot be; keep my mind from constant turning towards the things I cannot see.

Darkness, darkness, be my blanket,
cover me

with the endless night;
take away the pain of knowing,
fill the emptiness so bright.

→ Alice ←

Like a tree in the meadow wind,
she will bend to take you in.

makes no difference where you've been
—that's the way she feels about you.

Like the sunshine
warms the sand,
she will touch you
with her hand.

Touching makes you understand

that's the way she feels about you.

You've got to wake up, girl;
there's the day ahead,

Wake up sunshine! Open your sleepy eyes for me.

I've been waiting
all the night —

People waiting for the light.

Sunshine,
sunshine.
